INTRODUCTION

The Senior Class and the proud producers of this 1949 "Pioneer" consider it a privilege and a worthwhile accomplishment to have continued the heritage left us and have no doubt of its continuation throughout the years to come.

We planned this annual to give you what annuals are created to give, and then a little more. From the beginning, we planned this annual with our hearts as well as our hands and minds. It is a good one because we knew it would be. We strived to fulfill the confidence that our superintendent and teachers knew we could fulfill.

Our deepest and sincere appreciation goes to all of our patrons who gave so willingly, our teachers and advisers to whom we are forever indebted, to every one who gave time and thought to this production of our "Pioneer."

DEDICATION

to

Mrs. E. L. Mason

*She has completed our ideal of a teacher.
She has met our requirements for a friend.
She has enriched our lives, because she is a wise counselor and a true lady.*

CLASS HISTORY

The other day as I was trying to clear out a hall closet (which somewhat resembles Fibber McGee's) I came upon an old diary. I put it aside giving it very little thought. Since then, however, it has constantly been on my mind. Why, it must be twenty years old, for the last date in it was 1949 and it is now 1969. I went back to the closet and after a somewhat thorough search I found it, brushed away the dust, opened it and read:

September 3, 1945 . . . Today was the first day of school and we were freshmen. Oh what a wonderful life is in store for us. We are the first Freshman Class in the new building and I know we are being smiled upon by all, for the good fortune of not having to start our high school career on the "Hill".

Smilingly, I thumbed through page after page bearing written notes of all the fun that belonged to the Freshman class. Another date caught my eye. It was

September 2, 1946 . . . Since my class and I have become Sophomores we know there is more to high school than just classes. This year we have our first basketball team and they are really sensational. This is also our first year for the school paper and annual. Since our school is now a year old, we have grown very attached to it. We can see more school spirit blossoming out all over school.

Knowing that my junior year came next I skipped over until I found it.

September 3, 1947 . . . Now that we are Juniors we feel we are at last important in school and so we have elected class officers. They are: President, Jimmy Panter; Vice-President, Helen Kent; Secretary and Treasurer, Bette Timmons.

October 30, 1947 . . . Tonight we sponsored the traditional Halloween Carnival. It was tops! We had a fortune teller, fishing pond, house of horrors, dancing, and lots of things to eat. To top it all, there was a play in the auditorium followed by a fashion (?) show. It's rumored that those gorgeous girls were boys but I don't believe it. They were so convincing! Everyone went home with a real Halloween Spirit.

March 23, 1948 . . . Tonight was a big night for us Juniors. Almost a month ago the Seniors so generously graced us with permission to help them sponsor a minstrel. Tonight it was produced and what a success "The Lazy Moon Minstrel" turned out to be. All characters were members of the Junior or the Senior class. I don't think I shall ever forget how some of my classmates looked with black faces. May 7, 1948 . . . Tonight was the night of all nights. We honored the Senior Class with a banquet and such an impressive one. The candlelight theme was carried out magnificently. The auditorium was draped with green and white crepe paper and hundreds of balloons which were cut during the dance. After the banquet, Larry Schencks and his orchestra furnished the music. It was such a lovely night, but like all good things it soon came to an end.

Slowly I turned the pages for I knew my Senior year was next and I hesitated to refresh the wonderful but somehow sad times that were ours in that year.

August 30, 1948 . . . Seniors at last! I heard an underclassman say in the hall today that all Seniors could be picked out by the angle of their noses. (I passed this statement by a little haughtily for someday he would understand.) Imagine our surprise when nine familiar people marched in. They were the Seniors from Bonaire whose school had burned the previous year. We are glad to have them but we sympathize with them in the loss of their school. We elected class officers again. They are: President, Bill Robertson; Vice-President, Earl Blalock; Secretary, Evelyn Dennis; Treasurer, Jackie Simpson.

October 1, 1948 . . . Who would have ever thought being a Senior was so complicated? Why there's our annual, "The Pioneer," and the school paper, "The Chirp Staff," which we have to look after. Then there's the coke machine and so many other things we have to attend to. (To say nothing of those high class dues.) But it's really fun.

November 23, 1948 . . . Tonight we had our school's first "Sadie Hawkins' Day" dance. We hope our succeeding classes will make this a tradition because it was really a success. Everyone came in the authentic dogpatch costumes. People were running around with bouquets of turnips and corn cob pipes. At last came the race, all the girls were prepared to catch a man at last and most of us did. Marrying Sam, who was really Reverend Dennis, was there to perform ceremonies for the lucky couples.

March 4, 1949 . . . Tonight we had a semi-formal dance which was quite a bit of fun. We were surprised and pleased at the large crowd that attended.

April 29, 1949 . . . Tonight we had our Senior Play, "It's a Great Life" produced under the careful direction of our Senior sponsor, Mrs. Mason. Some of the seniors received Oscars for their hilarious acting in this popular comedy. It was really a success and the Seniors take a bow.

May 6, 1949 . . . Tonight the Juniors gave us the long awaited banquet and we had to congratulate them because it was a very outstanding event. We thoroughly enjoyed the theme, food, and music.

May 24, 1949 . . . Tonight we were graduated from high school. Sitting there on the stage we felt responsible and sober for we knew this was a very important night in our lives and one that we hope we shall never forget.

I closed the diary with a tear in my eye and I felt all my fellow members of the class of 1949 would have done the same thing if they, like I, had turned back to our high school days for a few minutes and refreshed their memories on the four years we shall never forget.

CLASS PROPHECY

They had told me I must prophesy,
But I knew not what to do,
For I was not born a prophet,
Anymore than one of you.

I had spent the day in study,
And in thinking hard and deep,
So I now, all worn and weary,
Lay me down and fell asleep.

I had lain there but a moment
In that slumber, calm and sweet,
When I rose, refreshed and strengthened,
And stepped out upon the street;
But I very soon discovered
That I was in a strange place,
For I saw not one known figure,
Nor an old familiar face.

I was in a mammoth city,
By the side of which I knew
That New York, the nation's glory,
Would stand but a feeble show;
Great skyscrapers all about me,
Airplanes through all the air,
Wonders far beyond conception,
Here and there and everywhere!

I could scarcely believe my senses,
When I saw the airship liner,
Bore the well-known name of
"Warner Robins"
While the name gleamed from each sign;
And my eyes were opened wider,
Than they'd ever been before,
When I saw a slip of paper
Dated 1974.

While I puzzled o'er this problem,
Staring 'round with open eyes,
Looking for someone to question,
Of this marvelous surprise,
I saw near me a lady,
Coming on with footsteps slow,
And I thought I would accost her
And learn what I wished to know.

As she came to be still nearer,
I thought I had seen that face,
Somewhere else, yet could not put it
In exactly its right place;
But at last she stood before me,
And all wonder vanished quite;
'Twas my old chum, Jackie Simpson
And I met her with delight.

It was strange that I should know her,
For the change in her was great,
She was very tall and slender,
While she moved with queenly state.
She seemed quite surprised to see me,
Said I had been long away,
And gave me an invitation,
To remain with her that day.

Her kind offer I accepted,
And she took me by the hand,
Led me to a nearby roof-top,
Where a sign said, "Taxi Stand."
Down there swooped a plane before us.
"Taxi, Ladies?" Came the cry.
Jackie entered and I followed
And we mounted to the sky.

As we flew I watched the pilot,
Heavy damsel with brown hair,
To whom this jaunty hacking
Was an everyday affair.
When she turned around,
I knew her by the color of her eyes:
Nell Freeman and no other,
Wild and riding high.

Soon we flitted past a corner,
That looked like old times to me,
For it was a well-known corner,
Where our high school used to be,
Now the place was changed to
show,
A factory, fifty stories high,
And I noticed a small fish-stand
there,
As we were passing by.

And behind the greasy counter
Stood a man I knew at sight;
Yes, it was Bill Robertson
Yelling "Fish" with all his might.
I looked at him in wonder
For whoever would have thought
That our brilliant old time president
To such a task could be brought.

But the whole day brought sur-prizes
Joann Stallworth was dancing on the stage.
Bette Timmons was an opera singer,
Cullen Talton was a preacher,
quite the rage.
Earl Blalock, a soldier; Jerry Self
an author;
Helen Kent an old maid, prim
and neat;
Marie Davis had grown so heavy,
Anti-Fat was all she'd eat.

The beaming sun reminded us
That it was time to eat,
So down we swooped
And landed on a glistening street.
The architect, Kenneth Stone,
Had planned a street of glass,
So that at eventide it could be used
For dancing fine and fast.

But there were those who did not wait
For the eventide
Julian Amos and Diane Duda were dancing side by side
Oh, yes, another couple, too impatient still to wait
Was Powell Price and Mary
Newsome
Gliding in a hasty gait.

CLASS PROPHECY (Con't.)

We went into an eating place
As fine as any palace;
But to gain admittance we looked at through a lattice
The door man was the tallest man
That we ever saw.
He was Chip Chapman dressed without a flaw.

The head waiters in costumes
As brilliant as could be
Were Clarence and Ermon Compton
Quite remembering me.
They placed us close to the floor
show
So that we could see
Already in the spotlight
On a continual turning stage
Eppie Holland and Milam Watson
Now quite the rage
As the nation's greatest dancers
But let us tell you more.

Making up a gorgeous background
And swaying to lilting tones
Were Doris Hudson, the Dennard
Twins and Lillian Jones.
The light then changed its focus and
There stood before me
Two human dolls, Margie Peacock and Betty Watson,
As petite as could be.

In spite of all there was to see
Our meal was over soon
We were given a souvenir
An engraved silver spoon
With the initials of the owners
James Maurer and Gene Wall.

At the entrance dispatching taxis
One and all
Were Dan Greenway and Jack Herndon
Busy, as you see,
But Dan said not a word
Just as he used to be.

We were told the World's Fair
Was now in full swing
But we preferred to go to see
The World Series game
That was being played across the square.
Perhaps there we would find
Something quite rare.
Oh, you guessed it—Sammie Mitchell was right there Selling peanuts with help from another source.

Connie Walden was making change
And smiled at us, of course.
A band was marching on the field
Led by two majorettes.
Joyce Spivey and Jewel Rabun
As winsome as coquettes.

As added feature just before the game
Claxton Hill performed;
A juggler of great fame,
Not with balls but humans he did sieze
He managed Dorothy Davidson,
Sadie Wooden, Cherrie Watson,
And Kathryn Fears with ease.
When the game began
Charles Craig was at bat
With Steve Perkins as catcher.
Aren't you stunned at that?

Then because the sun was shining in my face
I didn't see who it was standing on first base.
It was Ivonne Mitchell,
A person of great fame,
The first woman to play
In a World Series game.

As pleased as we were, even though surprized,
We failed to observe near us,
two notables' wives.
Betty Rawlins, the First Lady in a foreign land.
And Faye Lawrence, her lady in waiting, at hand.

By and by we reached the home
Where Jackie lived—her husband too,
But he was a traveling salesman,
So I didn't find out who.
I was very tired and sleepy
So I thought that it was best
To withdraw myself a little
For an hour or two of rest.

I slept long and very soundly
And just judge of my surprise
When again, after my slumber,
I opened my drowsy eyes.
I found myself in the cottage
I had lived in long ago,
Where I started out that morning
On that curious quest to go.

I sprang up and sought the window:
Yes, it was the same old town
That, in what seemed 'years ago
I had wearily lain down.
But the dream had been so lifelike;
That even yet I could not feel
That the vision I had witnessed
Could be otherwise than real.

So you see, dear friends and classmates,
That 'twas nothing but a dream
I've been telling howe'er natural
And real to you it must seem.
But in this old world of wonders
Dreams have often-times come true,
So who knows but this my vision,
May be realized by you.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Ladies and Gentlemen, Board of Education, Superintendent, Teachers and Friends:

In behalf of my client, the class of 1949, of Warner Robins High School, of the City of Warner Robins, State of Georgia, U.S.A., I have called you together upon this solemn occasion, to listen to our Last Will and Testament, and to receive from our dying hand the few gifts we have to bestow in our last moments. Cutting so rapidly loose from life, and finding so many things of such gigantic proportions to be attended to before the end should come upon us, realizing at the same time that we have no longer any time left to spend in cultivation of our own virtues, we did, collectively and individually, deem it best to distribute these virtues with our own hands to those friends for whose needs they seem best fitted. As a result of this announcement a wild scene took place amidst most frantic pleading and scrambling among our successors for this or that so long coveted glory; but we have tried to be just, as well as generous and impartial, and distribute wisely unto those who will make the best use of such gifts as we have in our power to bestow, the talents that have served us so faithfully these four years. These are our decisions, as at last definitely arrived at through very deliberate consideration. Owing to the flighty condition of our brain, and the unusual disturbance in its gray matter, we beg to state that we may quite possibly have been mistaken in our inventory; but such things as we like we have, we hereby give into your possession, hoping that you will accept them as a sacred trust from those who have gone before.

Listen, then, one and all, while I read the document, as duly drawn up and sworn to:

We, the class of 1949, in forty-six individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of a crammed-mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

And first we do direct that our funeral services shall be conducted by our friends and well-wishers, our superintendent and his all-wise and his ever-competent faculty, who have been our guardians for so long, only asking, as the last injunction of the dying, that the funeral be carried on with all the dignity and pomp that our worth, our merit, our attainments, and our positions as Seniors of "grave and reverend mien," must certainly have deserved.

As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

Item 1: We give and bequeath to the dear faculty who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. No longer need they lie awake through the long watches of the night to worry over the uncertainty of whether this one is doing her homework, or that one will have her mathematics in the morning class. It has been a hard strain on them, for Seniors are said to be at all times and under all conditions difficult to manage. But they have done their duty, and verily, now shall they have their well-earned reward.

Item 2: We give and bequeath to our beloved superintendent, Mr. Bert Rumble, our sincere affection, our heartiest gratitude, and the whole unlimited wealth of our eternal memory. In an attempt at partial payment for all that he has done for us during our long years at Warner Robins High School, we make over to him a heavy mortgage on our future in the Great Unknown beyond. It shall be his to watch every step of our upward and onward flitting—to note each trial, each attempt, each victory, each success, and honor that we may achieve in the arena of the world—and to accept for himself every ounce of praise, knowing that it is due to his faithful instructions.

Item 4: The following may seem but trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away because we cannot keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them.

Clarence Compton wills his noisy ways to the quiet Junior, Gene Smith . . . Ermon Compton leaves his ability to get dates to Billy Woodard . . . Charles Craig wills his ability to get along with girls to Guyton Smith. . . . To Linda Pritchette goes Dorothy Davidson's gift of "gab." . . . Marie Davis leaves her "cunning" ways to Sylvia Wood . . . Zelda Dennard wills her rude ways to Cleone Lowe . . . Nelda Dennard leaves her innocence to Helen Ammons . . . Evelyn Dennis wills to Mabel Hicks her fast way of doing things . . . Diane Duda leaves her "Southern accent" to Helen Childs, who boasts a Northern brogue . . . Kathryn Fears leaves her ability to leave men alone to Mary Ellen Wyatt . . . Nell Freeman leaves her athletic ability to Jackie Sell. . . . Dan Greenway leaves to Billy Howard his quietness. . . . Jack Herndon leaves his laziness to Raymond Hix. . . . Claxton Hill leaves his artistic ability to Harold Simpson . . . Eppie Holland leaves her "teacher's pet" title to Sue Noland . . . Doris Hudson leaves her boy friends to Jane Parker and Nancy Hoban . . . Helen Kent leaves her ability to see the "dentist" often to Nancy McCollough . . . To Dorothy Williams goes Faye Lawrence's never dying smile . . . Skip Maurer leaves his "backing-up way" to Manson Pike . . . Ivonne Mitchell leaves her temper to Vivian Wheelus and Abbielu Hughes . . . Sammie Mitchell leaves his Barnesville girl friends to Richard Wallace . . . Mary Newsom wills her unusual attendance at school to Jeanette Self. . . . Margie Peacock wills her love of Bonaire to Shirley Hill (along with the people in it, too) . . . Steve Perkins leaves his brilliance to Douglas Hood . . . Powell Price wills the coke machine and its surroundings to Delawood Jones . . . Jewel Rabun leaves her wandering mind to Bernice Wood . . . Betty Rawlins wills her undying interest in all that happens to Edith Steed . . . To Jim Harley goes Bill Robertson's ability to keep order . . . Jerry Self wills her petite statue to Jonell Welch . . . Jackie Simpson leaves her underclass boy friends to Peggy Hunter . . . Joyce Spivey leaves her sewing ability to Carrie Nell Brewer . . . Joan Stallworth wills her ability to get into trouble to Grace Gastineau . . . Shirley Williams leaves to Shirley Hill the younger half of the Hill family . . . Kenneth Stone leaves his shyness to Kenneth Mercer and L. H. Flanders . . . Cullen Talton leaves his good looks to Sonny Rumble . . . Bette Jean Timmons leaves her inquisitive ways to Peggy Crosby . . . Connie Walden leaves her bashfulness to Jane Evers . . . Gene Wall leaves his "stoopid" ways to Kenneth Pierce and Bob Blanchard. . . . Betty Laura Watson leaves her basketball ability to Peggy Woodard . . . Mickey Watson wills the latest models in cars to Irvin Gentry . . . Lillian Jones leaves her "comb" to Myra Beauchamp I'm sure Myra won't let anyone borrow it . . . Cherry Watson leaves her black hair to the cute red head, Jewel Colson . . . Sadie Wooden leaves her ability to keep boys (especially like Cullen Talton) to Peggy Sears.

It has taken much hard work—but quite a bit of fun, too—getting the Pioneer “out on time.” Quite a time was had together getting ads, collecting bills, typing and re-typing copy. But everything went rather smoothly because both staff members and faculty advisors were intent on doing the best job each could do.

MR. RUMBLE'S PICTURE

On December 13, the Senior Class presented to the high school a picture of Mr. Rumble. Bill Robertson, president, made the following presentation speech:

The Senior Class of 1949 wishes to pause amidst the rush of things and in a quiet and lasting way give honor and reverence where honor and reverence are due. We do this to assure ourselves that we, too, may be remembered as having made a permanent contribution as we came through.

We want to pay honor and tribute today to our beloved and respected friend, Mr. Bert Rumble.

The R is for respect he has gained along the way.
The U is for untiring efforts in school and at play.
The M is for masterfulness of the job at hand.
The B is for the bigness of his heart at our command.
The L is for the love of youth, for folks like 'you and me.
The E is for energy as limitless as can be.

They all stand for Rumble—our boss and our friend, who lives a forward looking life from day break till its end.
